Facts Common to All Counts

9. On or before May 6, 2003, CruiseCompete contacted Cook in Massachusetts and engaged Cook to perform computer internet services for its business operations. Cook performed those services out of Massachusetts.
10. Lacking cash to pay for said services or unwilling to pay for the services, Robert A. Levinstein, as promoter of CruiseCompete offered, and Cook accepted payment in the form of a five (5%) percent interest in the Limited Liability Company that was formed to incorporate CruiseCompete.
11. On or about May 6, 2003, the Articles of Organization governing the Defendant's LLC, was filed with the Iowa Secretary of State's Office. (See Exhibit I).
12. At or about the same time CruiseCompete finalized its operating agreement. That operating agreement indicates that Cook was granted 50 LLC units which represented five (5%) percent of the LLC units outstanding at the time of incorporation. (See Exhibit 2)
13. These LLC units were granted to Cook upon his substantial completion of all computer related services for CruiseCompete; subsequent to issuance, Cook's services were completed.
14. Recently, on information and belief, due to the initial success of the Company, CruiseCompete has been the subject of a potential buyout at a stock price greatly in excess of the current stock value of the Company.
15. After this potential interested purchaser appeared, Robert A. Levinstein, Managing Partner of CruiseCompete demanded that Cook sell his interest of the stock in the LLC for $5,000.00, a price substantially lower than the anticipated sale price to the potential buyer. (See Exhibit 3)

16. When Cook advised Garrett of his unwillingness to accept the demand referenced in Paragraph 15, Levinstein sent an email to Cook threatening that if he refused to sell his interest, various actions would be taken against him to either diminish or eliminate his five (5%) percent interest in CruiseCompete. (See Exhibit 3).
17. Subsequent to that threatening email, Levinstein then emailed another letter, purportedly invoking Section 7.5 of the Operating Agreement, (at Exhibit 1). Pursuant to that section, Levinstein initiated the process to remove Cook as a member of the LLC, under the allegation that he had failed to perform additional uncontracted services to the Company. (See Exhibit 4).
18. Cook had substantially completed all services to the LLC at the time he was awarded his interest in the LLC; subsequent to issuance, Cook's services were completed.
19. On information and belief, CruiseCompete and its members never intended to pay for the services that they contracted with Cook for and which he rendered, due to the LLC's and the individual defendants' intent to invoke the operating agreement to remove Cook as a member without just cause.
20. On information and belief, based upon the Exhibit 3, all of the individual members of the LLC that are individual defendants participated in this breach of fiduciary duty and attempt to diminish the value of Cook's LLC units.

Section 3.2 Admission of New Members. New members may be admitted to the LLC by an affirmative vote in interest by the LLC members of LLC Unit in excess of 50% (i.e. 50.1% or greater) vote in interest of LLC members as defined in Section 3.5 of this agreement.

Section 3.3 No Liability of Members. All debts, obligations and liabilities of the LLC, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations and liabilities of the LLC, and no member shall be obligated personally for any such debt, obligation or liability of the LLC solely by reason of being a member. This section does not prevent an LLC member, should he or she so choose, from separately agreeing to guaranty or otherwise become liable for a debt which is also one of the LLC.

Section 3.4 Access to Books and Records of LLC. Each LLC member shall have the right to inspect the books and records of the LLC during normal business hours after the giving of reasonable notice of this intent to the LLC custodian of said documents and information; however, each member gaining access to the books and records of the LLC shall hold this information confidential and only use LLC information for the furtherance of LLC business and interests or for making investment decisions regarding the member's LLC interest. Upon withdrawal or departure as a member of an LLC, a member shall deliver all LLC books and records in his or her possession to the remaining LLC members or managers.

Section 3.5 Actions by the Members; Meetings; Quorum.

- a. The LLC members may take any action at a meeting in person, by proxy, or without a meeting by written resolution in accordance with Section 3.5(d). Meetings of LLC members may be conducted in person or by telephone conference. A voting proxy given by an LLC Member to another person must be in writing.
- b. Voting. Each LLC member shall be entitled to vote upon all matters for which LLC members have the right to vote. All LLC member votes shall be tallied by interest under which each member shall be entitled to one vote for each LLC Unit possessed (for example, a member possessing 150 LLC Units shall be entitled to 150 votes upon any matter submitted to the LLC Members for a vote). Each vote per LLC Unit shall carry the same weight and have the same value, for voting purposes, as every other LLC Unit. Should state law create statutory situations where LLC member votes are to be taken on a one vote per member basis, votes per member (as opposed to per LLC Unit interest) shall be limited to those specific circumstances under which state law requires such a vote.

- c. Unless another percentage is given elsewhere in this operating agreement or by state law, all LLC member votes on any matter shall require an affirmative vote in interest by LLC members of LLC Unit in excess of 50% (i.e. 50.1% or greater) of the outstanding total to pass or approve the motion, resolution, or otherwise take action by the LLC members. For example, if there are 1000 LLC Units outstanding, a vote of 50.1 LLC Units in favor of a resolution is required for its passage unless the resolution involves a matter for which this operating agreement or state law requires a higher percentage.
- d. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Members may be taken without a meeting if Members with the percentage of votes (per LLC units) sufficient to approve the action pursuant to the terms of this Agreement resolve thereto in writing and the writing or writings are filed with the LLC records of actions taken by Members. In no instance where action is authorized by written resolution shall it be required that a meeting of Members be called or notice be given; however, upon passage, a copy of the action taken by written resolution of the members shall be sent promptly to all LLC members.
- e. Meetings of Members may be called by any LLC member, or members, collectively holding 25% or more of the outstanding LLC Units upon seven (7) days written notice to the other LLC members. Notice of a meeting called for hereunder may be made by standard U.S. mail, electronic mail, or facsimile transmission and shall contain the time, place, and purpose of such meeting. A quorum for any action to be taken at a meeting of LLC members shall be LLC members present (in person, via telephone, or by proxy) holding more than 50% of the LLC Units. Any Member may through a written instrument waive the right to receive prior notice of a meeting of the Members as described herein.

Section 3.6 Power to Bind the LLC. No LLC member or group of members acting in their individual capacity--separate and apart from action as LLC members pursuant to this operating agreement--shall have any authority to bind the LLC to any third party with respect to any matter.

Section 3.7 Members who are not individuals. Each Member who is an artificial entity or otherwise not an individual hereby represents and warrants to the LLC and each Member that such Member is: (a) duly incorporated or formed (as the case may be), (b) validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or formation, and (c) has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder.

Section 3.8 Tax Matters Partner. Robert Levinstein is hereby designated as the LLC's "Tax Matters Partner" under Section 6251(a)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and shall have all the powers and responsibilities of such position as provided in the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder. Justin:

I hope all goes well with you.

After some discussion, Heidi, Eric and I would like to offer you $5,000 for your CruiseCompete LLC units.

We haven't seen a significant contribution from you over the past year, and we don't believe that this is likely to change. The current situation has the three of us doing all the work while continuing to pay you, and we're not willing to let that continue.

Our consensus is that $5,000 is a fair buy-out offer. This takes into account the work you did early on related to SEO and the time you spent reviewing the membership agreement a few months ago. Along with the regular monthly checks you've been receiving, we think is very generous compensation for the limited time you've put in.

We can get you a check within the next week or so, and make the transfer of your shares back to the company effective January 1, 2005 so you will still get a December partnership check. (probably $600).

As you evaluate this offer, I would like you to consider that our Operating Agreement gives us a lot of other options for dealing with this situation.

We can, for example, do any or all of the following:

1. Issue additional ownership units to the other three partners, diluting your ownership to essentially zero;

2. Begin paying salaries based on work performed, which would effectively eliminating most or all of the monthly partnership shares;

3. Follow the procedure to remove you for lack of performance. Note that you would bear all of the costs for arbitration and travel and payments wouldn't even start for a year after termination.

I'm sorry that this relationship hasn't worked out better for all of us. I just hope you can take an objective look at the situation and see it from our point of view.

This offer is good for one week. I have attached a draft buy-out agreement for your review. Please feel free to give me a call or e-mail me if you have any questions. Or you can simply sign, date and fax me the agreement and we'll get you out a check right away.

Mr. Justin Cook
Sheff Law Offices
Ten Tremont St. 7th Floor
Boston, MA 02108

Dear Mr. Cook:

Pursuant to section 7.5 of the Operating Agreement of CruiseCompete, LLC, this letter (sent to you via e-mail to both jccook@hotmail.com and jccook@shefflaw.com on November 12, 2004 as well as to the above address) constitutes official notice that the majority of the Membership (consisting of Robert Levinstein, Eric Busick, and Heidi Garrett) believes that you have failed to perform required services.

Per the Operating Agreement, you have thirty (30) days from the issuance date of this letter to correct this failure.

Your initial responsibilities were to provide regular, ongoing consulting on search engine positioning, and the management of the purchase of web traffic.

Your efforts under the first task have been sporadic at best. Members have complained about the lack of organization in the information you have submitted as well as the impracticality of suggestions, and the majority membership is aware of no value the organization has derived from these efforts over the past year.

Your lack of attention to detail in managing the purchase of web traffic via pay-per-click search engines necessitated that this responsibility be handled by other members. The majority members are aware of no other projects related to the purchase of web traffic that you have brought to fruition.

You have also exhibited a general lack of planning and follow-through in all of your efforts.

In order to give you the broadest possible opportunity to correct your failure to perform, we place no strictures on the form of the remedial action. Any significant positive contribution to either revenue generation or cost savings over the next thirty (30) days will be considered, provided it is documented and submitted along with a detailed, credible action plan for you to carry out in 2005.

The majority membership group will be scheduling a vote to consider your removal as a member. The majority will base its decision on its evaluation of the written documentation you provide, so please be aware that anything you wish us to consider must be submitted in writing. To assist you in documenting this information, I have e-mailed you a form to be completed and submitted via e-mail to rlevinstein@cruisecompetec.com by 5:00PM central time on December 20th, 2004. (Please call 888-256-1750 to verify receipt if you do not receive a receipt via e-mail). The form is an Excel document that includes detailed comments and should be self-explanatory. If you did not receive the form, please contact me immediately and I will resend it to you. If you have any questions about the form, please submit them to the above e-mail address prior to December 13th, and they will be answered via e-mail no later than December 17th.

If you wish to include any contributions you make between the end of the 30-day period (i.e., December 11th) and December 20th we will consider these as well.

Should we not receive the completed documentation by December 20th, we will understand that you have chosen not to contest your removal.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Levinstein
